

Special Third-Party Events

Fundraising Guidelines

Thank you so much for selecting the Central California SPCA (CCSPCA) as the beneficiary of your event. We have created this form for those caring individuals and companies in our great community who are planning an event to help our homeless, neglected, and abused animals.

What is a Third-Party Fundraising Event?

A third-party fundraiser is any fund raising activity organized by a non-affiliated group or individual where the CCSPCA has no fiduciary responsibility and little or no staff involvement.

How can I get started in planning my event for the CCSPCA?

The path to launching a third-party event typically begins with an idea and a plan of action that is presented to the CCSPCA. The group or individual completes an application and submits a signed Third-Party Application which becomes an agreement about expectations from the CCSPCA's involvement, whether with animals or volunteers, and the group or individual planning the event.

What happens after I submit the plan and application?

Although we actively encourage third party fundraising events, all events must be approved by CCSPCA in advance. This is an important safeguard to preserving the integrity of the CCSPCA name and our commitment to raise the funds necessary to fulfill our mission in a cost-effective and efficient manner. Once approved, we can provide guidance for your event and discuss ways that we can help inform our membership and the community about the event.

Does the CCSPCA staff and volunteers provide assistance in executing events?

Unfortunately, we do not always have the personnel needed to handle the organizational and administrative tasks associated with third-party events. Therefore the event sponsor is responsible for all details of the event including:

- Underwriting all of the related costs.
- Recruiting volunteers to help out at the event.
- Writing all letters, including solicitation, sponsor requests, thank you letters, etc. to potential donors, sponsors, patrons, etc.
- Creating flyers to publicize the event.
- Working at the actual event.

Fundraising Tips

Thank you for your interest in running a fundraiser for the Central California SPCA! Here are some tips before you get started.

1. For any questions, please feel free to contact us at 559-233-4782 or donations@ccspca.com.
2. In some cases, the Central California SPCA (CCSPCA) is able to provide staff, volunteers, or animals to be present at a booth or designated area for your function. If you feel that staff or volunteer presence is needed at your event, please feel free to let us know and we will do our best to try to arrange for this.
3. The CCSPCA will post flyers or other information about your event at our Animal Center, on our website, Facebook page, E-News, or Playmate magazine as space allows. We can also send out a press release to our media partners when all event information is provided.
4. If you would like exposure on our website please e-mail donations@ccspca.com as far in advance as possible and including all info, link for your event, logo, etc. so that it may be placed on our calendar.
5. The CCSPCA is unable to provide the addresses of our members, donors, staff, board members and/or volunteers to any outside organization.
6. If partial proceeds of your event will be donated to the CCSPCA, we would like to know what percentage will be donated. In addition, we would like to know a date when the donation will be made.
7. When referring to the CCSPCA in any event promotions, please use the organization's official title "Central California SPCA."
8. If your event includes any promotional print material, please call us at 559-233-4782 or email: donations@ccspca.com so we may send you the CCSPCA official logo.

Special Third-Party Events Agreement Guidelines

1. Organizers must sign a Third-Party Event Application.
2. The event will be promoted in a manner to avoid statement or appearance of the Central California SPCA (CCSPCA) endorsing any product, firm, organization, individual, or service.
3. All promotional materials must clearly state the percentage of proceeds that will benefit the CCSPCA.
4. Whenever possible, please share a list of targeted sponsors for the event before they are approached to minimize overlap with other CCSPCA events and/or fundraising campaigns that may be underway.
5. The CCSPCA can and will provide you with informational materials promoting our organization, should you want them.
6. Event organizers are responsible for obtaining all permits required by law.
7. Event organizers must obtain their own liability insurance to cover the event.
8. Under no circumstances will the third-party event revenue and expenses flow through the CCSPCA financials/accounting books. Only the final net proceeds from the event are to be processed by the CCSPCA.
9. The CCSPCA is not financially liable for the promotion and/or staging of third-party events.

Thanks again for caring about the animals in our community!
