

ESSAY and BOOKMARK 2015 CONTEST

ESSAY TOPIC

“Why do pets need veterinary care?”

BOOKMARK THEME

“Pets need vets. Veterinarians help our animals remain healthy.”

RULES

The contests are open to students from Fresno and its surrounding communities. The essay contest is for 7th, 8th, and 9th grade students. The essay needs to be 200 words or less. The bookmark contest is for elementary school students, further details are listed on a special form. The winning bookmarks will be mass produced and distributed as educational material throughout the year by the CCSPCA. All entries should have the submitter’s name, grade, teacher’s name, address and phone number.

Entries will be judged on clarity, originality, and aptness to the subject.

All entries become property of the CCSPCA.

Mail, fax, or deliver entry to:

Central California SPCA

Education Department

103 S Hughes Ave, Fresno, CA 93706

Phone: 233-0115 FAX: 233-0117

Deadline: April 24, 2015 at 12 Midnight

AWARDS

The top entry winners will be awarded a certificate, prize medal, gift cards, and receive media spotlight. The winners will also display their essay/bookmark in the Education Center and participate in the Award Ceremony during “Be Kind to Animals Week” on May 9, 2015.